ELKS' HIGH JINKS VERY SATISFYING TO BIG CROWD

Boxing, Wrestling, Concert by Band, Luncheon and Many Other Features

Nearly 1000 members of the antlered herd from the local and various lodges throughout Southern California were present Saturday night at the annual "High Jinks" of the local Elks' club, which was by far the best stag party that has been put on by the Glendale members during the last year. The affair, which consisted of a diversified program of amusement and entertainment, was ably conducted by the regular jinks committee—J. H. Oliver, A. L. Ferguson, Vincent Salmacia, J. T. Timmons and Will Chapman. They were assisted throughout the evening by the house committee and various individual lodge members.

The thirty-piece Glendale concert band, under the leadership of R. M. Crawford, furnished music for the merrymakers at numerous times during the entertainment. Its opening concert, which was given in the lodge room, was encored again and again by the pleased audience. This is the same band that was awarded third place out of a field of thirty in the recent Elks' convention at Los Angeles.

Bag Puncher Is Active
Harry Burns, who is the world champion bag puncher, gave a twenty-minute exhibition, performing many remarkable acts with the pear shaped bag. The most awe inspiring feature of his performance was that of making sixty complete "circles" in forty-nine seconds.

During the interim following the Burns exhibition the audience was entertained by Max Asher, well-known magician and card "shark." His clever tricks completely baffled even the keenest observers, and he was received with an enthusiastic applause.

Harry McPerson, the "demon" announcer of Glendale lodge, then introduced Dewitt Van Court, referee and sport writer, as the arbitrator for the evening's boxing program, which was made up of five three-round exhibitions of the fistic arts. Such stars as Jack Geyer, amateur middle weight champion of the Pacific coast, Ad Geyer, Johnny Meyers and other well-known California boxers appeared on the card.

"Luncheon at Midnight"
The boxers, who were all members of the Los Angeles Athletic club, were followed in the ring by several first class wrestling matches, the principals in which were also members of the Athletic club.

Immediately after the last wrestling exhibition the gathering adjourned to the "jinks" room, where they were served with a "midnight luncheon." During this time the boxing ring was being removed from the main lodge room, where a group of Los Angeles entertainers amused the crowd after the "feed."

The "jinks" committee was assisted during the evening by the following members of the house committee: John Roman, R. A. Borthick, Fred Fish, Joe Fortunato, W. H. Viohl, H. E. Rummel, C. C. Caswell, Ray Galvin and Herman Schroeder.

The entire party returned to Glendale today.

Legion Members for Ninth District Will Meet Here August 11

At a recent gathering of the officers and executive committees of several Los Angeles county American Legion posts it was decided that the members of the ninth congressional district will hold a meeting at the Glendale Legion hall on the evening of August 11. The ninth congressional district association was originally an organization formed by the delegates from the district posts sent to the 1920 state convention at San Diego, but since then it has been made permanent and is now made up of the 1921 delegates in addition to those of last year.

The meeting to be held here on August 11 will be in the form of a caucus for discussing measures and bills to be introduced at the state convention, which will take place at Yosemite on August 22-26.

Daley F. Stafford, a Covina attorney, has been elected president of the organization.

T. W. WATSON WILL GIVE LECTURE ON 'CITY MANAGER'

Local Official Is Invited to Tell Students About Municipal Government

T. W. Watson, city manager of Glendale, is rapidly coming to the forefront as a student and exponent of modern city government. Recently he has been signally honored by an invitation to appear before students of the Southwestern University school of commerce and address them on the subject of "Modern City Government—the City Manager Plan."

This lecture is scheduled for some time during this month. Others who are to speak include Sylvester Weaver, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; Jonathan S. Dodge, state superintendent of banking; Gordon Whitnall, chairman of the Los Angeles city planning commission and several financiers.

James O. Stevenson, principal in the American social reserve and member of the Southwestern university faculty personally extended the invitation to Mr. Watson to explain the management of an ideal municipality like Glendale.

Harry H. Powers Is Badly Cut on Hand

While trimming a small elder bush in his yard at 707 North Isabel street on Saturday afternoon, Harry H. Powers was painfully injured when his pruning knife slipped, badly lacerating his hand. The blade struck the end of the thumb on his left hand, splitting that digit wide open to the first joint and also slightly cutting two inches more of the surface.

Mr. Powers immediately rushed to a local doctor's office, where he received surgical attention. It was declared that the hand cannot be used for at least two weeks, and possibly longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaeffer Entertaining Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schaeffer of 431 West Patterson avenue entertained a number of friends at an informal party given at their home Friday night. A pink and yellow color scheme was carried out in the floral decorations throughout the house. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Bakeman, Miss Pinoges, Mr. Richardson, Mr. Kimberlin of Los Angeles, H. Myron of Los Angeles and Kathryn Kimberlin. A very graceful dance by Kathryn Kimberlin and song by Mr. Hunter, followed by games, were very much enjoyed. Supper was served at 11 o'clock.

IMPROVEMENTS AT STATE BANK CHIEF ATHLETIC FIELD, HIGH SCHOOL IN CITY, TELLS OF PROSPERITY

Normal C. Hayhurst, Handling Shovel Like Veteran, Is Directing Changes

Normal C. Hayhurst, athletic instructor at Glendale Union high school and an officer of the Fifth Separate Company, National Guards, is enjoying his vacation working.

For ten months of the year he is actively instructing the boys of the school in sports. Immediately following the closing of school he made ready for the ten day encampment of the guards in Yosemite National Park.

Now he is to be found, shovel in hand, on the athletic field of the school installing a handball court. Atwood Dutcher, a student, is preparing for the grid season also by wielding a shovel.

In addition to the handball court, a retaining wall for the athletic field is being put into a ditch and atop this will be placed a fence.

Free Look No More
"It will be a fine fence," said Mr. Hayhurst this morning. "Everybody will have to pay if they see the games hereafter."

Heretofore football and baseball contests have been more or less of a pink tea reception with everybody in attendance. Now it is going to be for those who have the wherewithal.

Messrs. Lockwood and Smith of the mechanical arts department also are working this summer in their departments. A great deal of care must be given the machinery and part of the plant rearranged to care for the increased attendance.

Rev. Almona B. Smart Is Improving Result of Serious Operation

Rev. Almona B. Smart, who has been seriously ill for the past three weeks at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital, following a major operation, has been improving rapidly and was removed to his home at 1110 Olive street this week-end. His physicians state that, considering the seriousness of his case, Mr. Smart is getting along very nicely indeed.

Dr. Ramon Ascanio and Family Visitors Here

Dr. Ramon Ascanio and Mrs. Ascanio, with their son, daughter and niece, arrived last week from Cuba, and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Newton Smith, 374 Salem street. The two young ladies are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Gatell, who came to Glendale a short time since from Havana. Mr. Gatell's intention was for a visit only to the southland but he was so pleased with Glendale that he decided to remain, and purchased the house at 352 Salem street where they now reside.

Accompanied by Mrs. L. Newton Smith, the visitors are all off for a short camping trip up the coast to Ventura, Santa Barbara and other points.

Group of Local Folk Depart for Catalina

The "Triumph Ten," a well-known group of Glendale young men, most of whom were members of the 1919 graduating class of the local high school, left yesterday for Catalina Island, where they will enjoy a two weeks' vacation. This will be the second annual outing of the "T. T.s" at the magic isle, the plan having been originally proposed by James McCluskey of 232 Orange street.

Those who made up the party were James McCluskey, Arthur MacKenzie, Russell Tummell, Edward Newcomb, Hugh Bryant, Dean Bryant, Francis Pauley, Roger Dennison, Lee Wise and Albert Townsend. The lads will return to Glendale on Sunday, August 14.

Mrs. Van Valkenburgh and Son Return Home

Mrs. O. M. Van Valkenburgh and son Floyd, who have been summering in Kansas City, Colorado Springs and Salt Lake City, have returned to Glendale to reside. Mrs. Van Valkenburgh has taken a home at 522 East Raleigh street and subscribed to The Glendale Evening News. She states that the heat in Kansas City has been almost insufferable this year, but she enjoyed the Colorado and Utah visit.

Jonathan S. Dodge Visitor In Glendale and Gives Some Interesting Figures

Jonathan S. Dodge, state superintendent of banks, was a visitor in Glendale Saturday afternoon and to an Evening News reporter quoted facts and figures relative to the state banking system.

Mr. Dodge was formerly supervisor of Los Angeles county from the district of which Glendale is a part and he has many friends here. He was recently appointed state bank superintendent by Governor William D. Stephens.

"The 423 banks and their 193 branch offices in the state banking system have passed successfully the hazards of deflation," said Mr. Dodge to the reporter.

"Yes?" came from the reporter. "Glendale's building permits for the month of July total over $350,000."

"Fine!" commented the state official. "In sixty-three days to June 30 our banking institutions have increased their assets $25,000,000. The aggregate is now $1,500,000,000."

"Huh!" snorted the reporter. "The total building permits for Glendale to date is $2,318,924."

Some More Figures.

"I congratulate Glendale," said the bank chief. "The relationship between loans and discounts and deposits has been restored in a very remarkable way. The loans have increased $13,000,000, and the deposits have advanced more than $29,000,000."

"Quite so," said the reporter. "Listen: The total cash receipts from Glendale's water and electrical businesses during the year were $306,815.72. Total cash disbursements were $305,503.04. Excess receipts over disbursements were $1,311.60. The total number of consumers added during the year were, water 1013, electrical 1349, total 2362. The total number consumers to date are, water 5242, electrical 6093, total 11,245. The amount invested in the water plant for each consumer served is $117.20 and in the electrical business the amount is $49.95. The total investment in the water business is $614,620.53 and in the electrical business is $245,881.44. The city's total investment in these two utilities is $860,501.97."

More Figures Quoted

The reporter came to a halt, exhausted from the strain of repeating the facts and figures. But not so Mr. Dodge. He said:

"Our savings banks have passed the billion dollar mark in assets. They have more than $900,000,000 in deposits, representing savings of 1,593,000 persons of California. Our savings banks are now fourth in the United States in assets and are rapidly gaining their way to third place."

Figures! Figures! Figures!

"They have increased their deposits more than $17,500,000 in sixty-three days. More than $62,000,000 is in their own vaults and to their credit and immediately at their command in the Federal Reserve bank of San Francisco."

"Our banks are meeting every obligation and justifying every demand made on them. The situation may be accepted by the people of California with an optimism based on reality of attainment."

"M-m-m," came from the reporter. "Looks like there's prosperity all over California."

"Your deduction is quite right," agreed the bank superintendent. "California is prosperous—just like Glendale."

The directors are financially able to keep the bank running, the state attorney's office said.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET IS DISPLAYING FIRMNESS

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The stock market showed firmness at the opening today. Steel common was taken in big blocks at 75 during the early trading after having opened at 74½. Bethlehem B. got up to 50¼ during the first few minutes. This was a new high on recovery. Baldwin Locomotive heavily held last week was up ¼ at 79 and later sold as high as 79¾. American Locomotive got above 83. Northern Pacific continued to lead the rails and made an early high at 78¾. Pennsylvania, selling ex-dividend was up ¼ at 37¾. There was little change in oils. There was general short covering among industrials. Oils acted well and Mexican Petroleum went up to 105½. Asphalt advanced easily above 54 in which a new pool was said to have been formed with a number of Philadelphians in it.

ADMINISTRATION IS PREPARING IMPORTANT MOVES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Important peace moves were under way here today on the seventh anniversary of the beginning of the world war. Secretary Hughes, in co-operation with representatives of other world powers here, expected to make progress toward setting a formal date for the opening of the world disarmament conference and arranging other preliminary details for those parleys. Also progressing toward results are the conversations between Ellis Loring Dressel, American commissioner in Berlin with German officials over the question of formally establishing a state of peace between the two nations and working out of a treaty. As announced by the United Press recently, the making of a separate peace with Germany instead of adopting a much amended Versailles treaty now seems certain. The separate treaty, however, is expected to approximate some of the economic clauses of the Versailles pact. The conversation between Dressel and German officials has an object to the smoothing away of obstacles to a quick agreement to a treaty. Preceding the treaty will be a proclamation of peace by President Harding. He may make this proclamation from Lancaster, New Hampshire, where he is going for a ten day vacation.

SETTLEMENT OF IRISH QUESTION READY TO ANNOUNCE

DUBLIN, Aug. 1.—Settlement of the Irish question awaits only a formal announcement, according to authoritative information here today. "President" De Valera and his cabinet were said to have accepted an enlarged offer from Great Britain, which will make Ireland a republic in everything but name. Ulster's position was reported to have been settled by permitting her to maintain a subordinate parliament until different terms can be arranged. The cabinet's decision followed the return here yesterday of Art O'Brien from London. It was commonly reported he carried an important communication from Premier Lloyd George. Before formal announcement of the agreement is made, it is expected that all members of the Irish parliament, the Dail Eireann, will be released and permitted to ratify the cabinet's decision. De Valera already had called for such a session for this week and arrangements previously had been made for release of those members still in prison. Details of the settlement were withheld, but the basis of it is that Ireland is to have the standing of a dominion with even greater powers than Canada, it was stated. Art O'Brien's mission in London was carefully guarded. On his return here yesterday, he was in conference with De Valera.

$208,000 IN BUDGET ADOPTED FOR CITY SCHOOLS

Board Considers Transportation Problem of Grand View and Verdugo Woodlands

More than $200,000 will be required to run the Glendale city schools, according to a budget adopted by the district board of trustees at their meeting Saturday night. This figure is exclusive of the union high school district.

It also was decided by the board that the advisory committee of nineteen be called together some time after August 15 to discuss a bond issue to provide for the phenomenal growth in enrollment, the present buildings being overcrowded. The committee will decide whether the forthcoming bond election will be on the same basis as the one called off two months ago, due to change in the district lines which seems to make essential an elementary school in the Grand View section.

City Makes Requests.

A request from the city for a small portion of the Cerritos avenue school grounds for the widening of Brand boulevard at the intersection of San Fernando was granted, but the board could not see its way to approve the improvement of Doran, Everett and Geneva streets in the vicinity of the Doran street school.

Superintendent Richardson D. White was instructed to look into the feasibility of providing transportation for students in the Verdugo Woodlands and Grand View sections of the city until such a time as schools are established in those neighborhoods.

Provisions of Budget.

The budget provides for one superintendent, eighty-eight teachers and principals, two secretaries, ten janitors and two laborers. It is based on the assumption that the county tax rate will be 40 cents for school purposes, the total estimated income being in the neighborhood of $170,000, which does not include the special district tax. The latter will probably be 34 cents on the $100 assessed valuation and raise at least $38,000 to make a grand total of $208,000 for which the budget calls. Of course, salaries form the principal part of school expense and it is estimated they will run $165,000. For building repairs and improvements $12,000 is allowed. Other expenses, including a balance of $12,000 to carry over to the next year, add $31,000 more to the budget, with a total of $208,000.

L. Newton Smith and Wife Like Glendale

It must be real, the attractions Glendale is claimed to have by those who know it best. Lying in the edge of the foothills, they who visit it once exclaim at the beauty of the town and its environs: to come often means only a complete surrender, and the visitor becomes a willing captive.

Such, at least, seems to be the story of many who now call Glendale "home," and such in fact was the reason why Mr. and Mrs. L. Newton Smith decided to make Glendale their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Smith arrived (in August last) from their late home in Philadelphia, but after spending most of the winter in Los Angeles, they found the attractions of Glendale so great that it resulted in their purchase of the property at 374 Salem street, where they now reside.

The attractive bungalow court on North Brand boulevard, now rapidly approaching completion, is being erected for Mr. Smith by Messrs.
Baldwin & Son, contractors.

God has given us tongues that we may say something pleasant to our fellow man.—Heine.

Los Angeles. Luncheon was served on the piazza. The color scheme of pink and green was carried out in the decorations of carnations and smilax, colored balloons suspended overhead, place cards and favors.

The guests were from Los Angeles, Santa Monica, Pasadena and Glendale and included Mrs. Percie Streeton, Mrs. Herbert Streeton, Mrs.
Walter Streeton, Mrs. Orrin Smith,

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Merrick of 332
West Milford street have just returned to their home after a delightful two months' automobile trip to Talent, Oregon, where they visited a number of friends. A complete camping outfit was carried on the trip, every night en route having been spent in the open.

Although they report an excellent vacation and a good time Mr. and Mrs. Merrick are both glad to get back to Glendale. They also report that the roads are all in good shape and that not even the slightest bit of machine trouble was encountered during the two months.

A few of the places of interest visited were Santa Barbara, Monterey, Watsonville, the Big Basin in the Santa Cruz mountains, San Francisco, Portland and Medford.

While in San Francisco Mr. and Mrs. Merrick called on W. R. Ross, who is in charge of the single tax

SPEED UP, ALL OF YOU YOUNG FOLK! TIME IS SHORT

Just One Month Remains In Which to Win Bicycle From Evening News

One month to win a bicycle, boys and girls! Today is August 1. The Glendale Evening News' great offer of a $65 Harley-Davidson racing wheel free to each and everyone that brings twenty new yearly subscriptions to this office gives twenty-seven working days until September 1 when the club closes. By that time a score or more Glendale children should be equipped with the best bicycles buyable for the Glendale Evening News spared no expense in getting good wheels, well equipped and worthy as prizes.

From the spirit being shown by both boy and girl contestants it is more than probable that the end of this week will see several Harley-Davidson wheels in the hands of new owners. One girl, in particular, is doing especially fine.

First she gets whatever term subscriptions possible—three months, six months or a year. With the first two classes she returns and has the subscriber lengthen the time to a year which gives her a decided advantage over the others who let well enough alone.

Several of the young solicitors have gotten twenty and more subscribers, but the total time does not equal twenty years. If they would get longer term subscriptions the wheel would be won easily.

However, if there were little to be done to get such a valuable prize, the bicycle could not be appreciated half so well. It is the earnest effort that the boys and girls give to the task that makes it worth while, according to parents who are pushing them along to victory.

Governor Small Is Making State Tour and Avoiding Arrest

By L. M. BENEDICT
United Press Staff Correspondent
AURORA, Ill., Aug. 1.—The Illinois state capitol today was "wherever" Len Small hangs up his hat.

Reaching here on a long automobile tour of state road inspection, the indicted executive had set up a "capitol on wheels." Present plans, well laid, see to it that the "wheels" do not lead to Springfield and Sangamon county, where Sheriff Mester is waiting with warrants for the governor's arrest for alleged embezzlement of state money.

The itinerary is being mapped out, it was said, so that the governor could travel all summer, if necessary, without once setting foot in Sangamon county. Small insists he would be "massacred" by his political enemies should his case come to trial here.

A few other "unfriendly counties" may also be avoided, it was intimated for fear of possible arrest and court proceedings there.

He Has Plenty of Room
Small has some 95,000 miles of state road in 101 counties, excluding Sangamon, to inspect if he wishes to do so. It could easily be made an all summer's job.

"The good roads question is the most important problem in Illinois today and I am going to devote all the time possible to it," the governor told newspaper men.

Asked whether he contemplated returning to Springfield within the next few days, the executive said:

"I cannot say, as my itinerary has not been completed."

While on the road tour, it was said, Governor Small will transact his executive duties from his auto and from hotel rooms in various county seats. A corps of traveling secretaries, it is expected, will flit back and forth between the traveling "capitol" and the state house at Springfield.

The belief in political circles today was that Small will stick to his motor car only until his legal advisers, headed by Albert Fink of Chicago, have decided upon some definite line of action in their efforts to gain arrest and trial outside Sangamon county. When they hit upon their plan, it was believed, the governor will return to Springfield, submit to arrest, give bond and immediately start a fight for a change of venue. Friends and enemies of the governor agree that the executive and his "capitol on wheels" would become the laughing stock of the nation before the summer was over.

'CHURCH FAMILY' IS TOPIC OF TALK BY DR. CRIST

General Average Was Never Better, Says Pastor In Sermon Sunday

At the First Methodist Episcopal church a congregation gathered yesterday morning that almost filled the great auditorium. Dr. Crist's sermon theme was, "The Church Family," taking for his text, II Timothy 1-2, "To Timothy, My Dearly Beloved Son."

Dr. Crist said in part: "The family idea is an old one. God instituted the family when the world was young. Only when the family is recognized as a Divine institution has there been a high state of civilization. Just what God's ultimate plan for the race is may be a profound mystery, but we know that 'He doeth all things well.' 'Whether the family unit is to exist in eternity or whether it is to be the big family of believers, we may not know now. But this we do know, the family unit is now necessary for the world's best good.

"Man's dearest treasure is that which centers about his own hearthstone. It is a holy ambition that one has to preserve his family honor and to contribute to the family good. The family idea may be applied to the church life. We are fond of speaking of the church of the family circle. What about it?"

"First—it should be said the members of the circle are not all perfect. Nor is anyone of them entirely perfect. While this is true, it is also true that we are pressing on towards perfection. A divine discontent thrusts us on to that which is better.

General Average Never Better

"While none are perfect, some are more perfect than we think. The saints are not dead folk. The general average of church life was never better than today. Members of the family often fail to recognize the real worth of others in the household. The brothers and sisters of Jesus did not recognize Him as divine. Possibly Joseph himself did not know, but Mary, his mother, did. The scripture says: 'Mary kept these things and pondered thereon in her heart.' Very often one is not fully appreciated, but good advice is to keep on doing right. Reward comes some day. In the family, no matter how perfect or faulty its members, there should be the most thoughtful consideration. So in the big family of the church. No one should be neglected or forgotten. Every earnest effort should be recognized and words of honest compliment extended.

"The church is a place of fellowship. It is a happy place. Religion in its highest terms is always a religion of joy. The center of all our joys is the Christ; about Him center all of the hallowed associations of the church."

Dr. Crist starts on his month's vacation this week. The pulpit will be supplied in his absence.

Preliminary Sessions Will Not Take Place

BY LLOYD ALLEN
United Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON, Aug. 1.—There will be no Pacific conference in London before the Harding disarmament meeting, the United Press was informed here today.

Plans for a preliminary London conference to thrash out Pacific problems immediately, as demanded by Premier Hughes of Australia, have been abandoned, it was learned.

This action clears the path for the Washington conference and indicates a distinct victory for the American proposals.

The decision came as a result of a fortnight's fight between British provincial premiers. It was reliably stated the premiers were deadlocked because Premiers Hughes, Lloyd George and Massey insisted that some sort of conference should be held in London prior to the Washington confab.

Premiers Meighen of Canada and Smuts of South Africa fought the suggestion. They took the attitude that such a conference would prejudice the Washington meeting and encroach on the plan of the United States.

It was understood Meighen and Smuts did not oppose a preliminary conference in Canada, as they regarded that an equivalent of a Washington meeting. It was evident they were entirely victorious, in view of the fact that the premiers' conference is over and Meighen sailed for Canada today.

Passion for Christ Is One Great Need, Says Rev. Louis Tinning

In the absence of Rev. W. E. Edmonds, the pastor of the Presbyterian church, the assistant pastor, Rev. Louis Tinning, preached Sunday morning, taking as his text, Phil. 3:13-14, "This one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." A resume follows:

"It has been said that every one has some passion which dominates his life. Some seem born with this passion; with some it only becomes manifest later. It is a sad thing when one's passion, purpose, is unworthy, inadequate. With Paul a single purpose ruled his life. He was one of the ablest men of all time, but he did not go scouting about to find a field to exercise himself in. No, he had the purpose. Yet not always did he have it; but after Christ came into his life it was, 'This one thing I do.'"

"There is the passion for Christ, the passion for the church, the passion for conquest. 'If one has the passion for Christ he will have also the others—they grow out of it. Sad to say there are Christians who are only average Christians.

Strive to Measure Up

"During the war men boasted proudly that they were 100 per cent Americans. Are we 100 per cent Christians? We don't measure up; but are we striving, aiming to be such? Now, some have a passion for the forms—they like a certain form; but there is something above all forms. Give Jesus Christ the supreme place in your life, and after that all the other things will adjust themselves easily, naturally to the places they should have. It is a tremendously important thing to live for Jesus Christ. Paul says, 'We are ambassadors for Jesus Christ.' Our government has one man in each country, an ambassador, representing us; when he speaks it is with tremendous authority. Now then, we are ambassadors of the risen Christ here on this earth. The highest thing in the world is to live as His representative.

"And the passion for the church: do you have it? A young woman member of a church in San Francisco offered herself to the Red Cross: 'I will provide an ambulance, drive it, furnish it entirely.' She did. She had been a church member for years, but had never done the like of this. What is the ruling passion in your life? Are you willing to serve anywhere in any way for Him?"

False Teachings Thrive

"False teachings thrive because there is so little passion for Christ. There is a passion for democracy, even for mob-ocracy, and 'mob-ocracy.' The mob is almost as dangerous as the mob. Let us turn away from these latter and anchor to democracy. It has its place; and yet the great questions of the world cannot be settled by this, but only by passion for Christ.

"I am for conquest. I would stir up each of you into passion for conquest. Jesus had his little circle of disciples very near to himself. Then a larger circle of the seventy. Then, broadening, the hundred and twenty; then larger and yet larger. Now, in which circle are you? A place is to be coveted in the inmost circle, but there are things that must be cast off if one is to have a place there. Where are you today? In one of the outer circles, or close in? Away yonder in the far heathen countries there are millions who know nothing of salvation. How much concerned are you? His command for us was 'Go,' but if we cannot let us be concerned. One of the tests is your attitude toward that command. It may be that you have children; what is your will as to letting your children go? If you are willing, that is one of the marks of a passion for Christ.

Missionary Religion
"We have in the world today three great missionary religions: Mohammedanism, the religion of force—choose between the sword or Koran; Buddhism, which helps others, but merely to lay up merit for self; Christianity, the religion of love for others—love because He first loved us.

"A minister who had the gift of ministry on the streets touched the heart of a poor dirty tramp, who accepted Christ. Next day the poor man came to him to ask him to go to save a dying brother tramp, saying, 'I've gone as far as I can, but I can't get him through.' He went and talked and prayed, and that man was saved, and died. It was the passion for Jesus Christ in the poor tramp—he knew Him, though he knew nothing else.

"Is my ruling passion a passion for Jesus Christ, for the church, for conquest?"

Rev. S. A. George Is Speaker Here Sunday

In the Tropico Presbyterian church on Sunday the Rev. S. A. George of Tacoma, Wash., spoke on "God's continual care of the world."

In this eloquent discourse the speaker made evident that God puts limitations on established governments and often says to them, "thus far and no farther," in plans to establish power or wreck other governments.

Many illustrations from Biblical and profane history were presented to show how God manifested His controlling power. That of the civil war in which an attempt to divide the American republic resulted in making it stronger than ever, and liberating 4,000,000 human beings was recalled by the vivid views of the Lord's hand in the defeat of the Central powers and saving civilization from the deadening hand of the Hun.

BUILDING PERMITS FOR JULY

LOWERING COSTS of construction seem to have had a decided tendency to increase building in Glendale during the month of July. The month showed $362,525 in permits issued, fully five-sixths of which was for residences.

The grand total for the year now is $2,318,924, a magnificent figure for a city the size of Glendale at the close of seven months business. With churches, clubhouses, business blocks and more homes in sight there seems no doubt but what the $4,000,000 mark will be passed by New Year's eve.

Following is a list of permits issued during July.

Rev. O. P. Rider Is Home From Gathering of Pastors In North

Rev. O. P. Rider returned Friday from Berkeley where he attended the Presbyterian Synod of California. The session lasted a week and was a very large and representative body, the attendance being the best in its history, he says. The time was divided between business and inspirational conferences on Sunday school work, Christian education, home and foreign missions, and quarterly sessions.

Some of the most noted men of the church were present to lead the sessions. The entertaining church was the First Presbyterian church of Berkeley, Dr. McAfee, pastor. Everything that could be done to make the visitors' stay a pleasant one was done by the Berkeley congregation and from the first day they felt comfortable and at home, says Rev. Rider.

Six members of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey will cut themselves off from civilization for four months to complete a survey of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado river never before attempted. Specially constructed boats containing sufficient supplies will be used.

MASONIC MEMBERS MEET AND FORM ACACIA CLUB

Gathering Takes Place at Tujunga; Monte Vista Is Caring for 30 Tots

Twenty-five members of Masonic lodges met at a hall in Tujunga last week and formed what is to be known as the Acacia club. The organization is the first to be formed in the community by the Masons, and it is expected that the membership will double its present number within the next few months.

Fred M. Ashby, who was elected president of the club, appointed a number of committees for various phases of the organizing process. Two of the more important of these committees were those for the drafting of a constitution and for the purpose of conferring with the grand officers of the lodge regarding proper procedure.

In Monte Vista Home
Monte Vista Home for undernourished children of Los Angeles county which was formally opened to the public two weeks ago, after having been entirely remodeled and furnished throughout by the various women's organizations of the county under the direction of the County Council of Community Service, is now lodging thirty little tots.

Mrs. A. Martin is superintendent of the lodge. The kitchen of the home, which in reality is not one room but five, counting the pantry, screen porch, etc., was furnished by the women of Glendale under the chairmanship of Mrs. R. W. Meeker.

Discuss Fire Patrol
A meeting of all of the federal and county fire wardens of the entire territory between San Fernando and the Arroyo Seco was held in La Crescenta last week, the purpose of which was to discuss several measures pertaining to the prevention and control of forest and brush fires.

Germans Lower Prices as Lure to Business

BUENOS AIRES—German electrical goods, everything from light globes to generators for huge power plants, are pouring into this port and at a cost, laid down in the customs house, fifty per cent lower than prices quoted by American firms for the same kind of goods. Germans are able to deliver anything in the electrical and steel line, from small hardware to locomotives, at a price from 30 to 50 per cent lower than British or American houses.

Glendale's Vaudeville Pleases Large Crowd

Patrons of the Glendale Theatre enjoyed a rare treat Saturday night when Melikjohn & Dunn presented Hans Hanke, international vaudeville star, as the feature of five acts of vaudeville. His piano playing is superb and he won tremendous applause for a one-handed interpretation of the sextet from "Lucia". Al Abbott in impersonations also was a star while the Newton twins—you couldn't tell them apart—danced and sang delightfully. Bert and Andre Kennedy in Scotch comedy were good and Fluvette Jeffries opened the bill in classic song and dance selections. No better bill has ever been offered metropolitan audiences at twice the price. The vaudeville is a regular Saturday feature at The Glendale Theatre.

Massachusetts People Celebrate August 6

The Massachusetts state society will celebrate the three hundredth anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers with a picnic in Sycamore grove, Saturday, August 6. The program will open about 3 o'clock. Rev. "Bob" Shuler will offer the invocation and will also give "A Snappy Five Minutes!" Vocal and instrumental music will be furnished by Misses Thelma and Velma Swartz. Judge R. L. Hubbard will be another of the speakers, there will be community singing and a special feature presented by the play ground commission. President Paul W. Zimmerman will be in charge of the exercises.

Canadian Trade With Italy Shows Increase

OTTAWA, Ont.—Italy has increased its imports from Canada over 300 per cent in a year, according to the report of the Department of Trade and Commerce for the fiscal year just ended.

In the preceding twelve months Italy spent $17,000,000 for Canadian products; last year its purchases totaled $57,750,000. Most of this was invested in wheat grown on the western prairies which are rapidly being settled by farmers.

France is Canada's best customer among European continental nations, according to the report, which further shows sharp increases in exports to Sweden, Norway, Turkey, Spain and Portugal.

Exports for the year were more than twenty times those of twenty years ago.

Hist! Jesse James Is Back Again; He's Bear!

YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo.—"Jesse James," Yellowstone's famous "hold-up" bear is back on the job. For a time park officials thought he had retired to an honest life, because weeks came and went with no reports of the genial highwayman.

Park Naturalist M. P. Skinner returned from a tour several days ago with a report that "Jesse" is again blocking the highway near "Thumb," on Lake Yellowstone.

The bear's method of operation is unique. He squats in the middle of the road and waits for an automobile to appear. The automobile finally arrives, and is forced to stop. "Jesse" then stubbornly refuses to leave until fed by the autoist. He then ambles off and lets the car pass. Thus far more than 100 autoists have been the victims of his "holdups."

He's on Water Wagon In Day; Still at Night

CHICAGO—Federal Judge Landis today uncovered the human paradox, a man who operates a city sprinkling cart during the day and run an illicit still at night.

James Williams, a person of color, is the paradox, and he operates on both sides of the Eighteenth Amendment.

"Where do you live?" asked the judge.

"I'm forgetful of de zack address, cap'n, yo' honah, but h'its erroun Thutty-first an' State street. H'its de grandes' culled boahdin' house in de stric'."

"What do you do besides operating this still, I mean, any regular, lawful work?"

"Deed, I do, Mistah jedge, from mohnin' twell night I drives one o' dem city water wagons."

"Well, Williams," said the judge, "when you fall off the water wagon you fall all the way. I'll give you thirty days in the House of Correction. And when you get back to your water wagon, take my advice and lash yourself to the mainmast."

City Councilmen Hear Needs of Oak Street

Last Saturday night a meeting of the Oak Street Improvement association was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tatlow, 311 Oak street for the specific purpose of presenting their viewpoint on the proposition of the improvement of Oak street to some of the city councilmen who had evinced a desire to hear "the other side."

Councilmen Davis and Kimlin were present and listened very attentively to several of the Oak street property owners, particularly E. A. Carvel, who has spent much time in collection of data on the history of the water service of the city which relates to the peculiar condition in which the Oak street property owners find themselves.

The councilmen expressed themselves as appreciating the apparent justice of the Oak street viewpoint and purpose of desiring to co-operate with council in bringing to a successful conclusion the improvement of the street which has been a bone of contention for so many years.

On motion the secretary was instructed to arrange if possible for another meeting to which other members will be invited.

United States Model for Brazil, He Says

By MILES W. VAUGHN
United Press Staff Correspondent
RIO DE JANEIRO, Aug. 1.—Dr. Nilo Pecanha today tossed Brazil into the middle of a sizzling, red-hot political campaign.

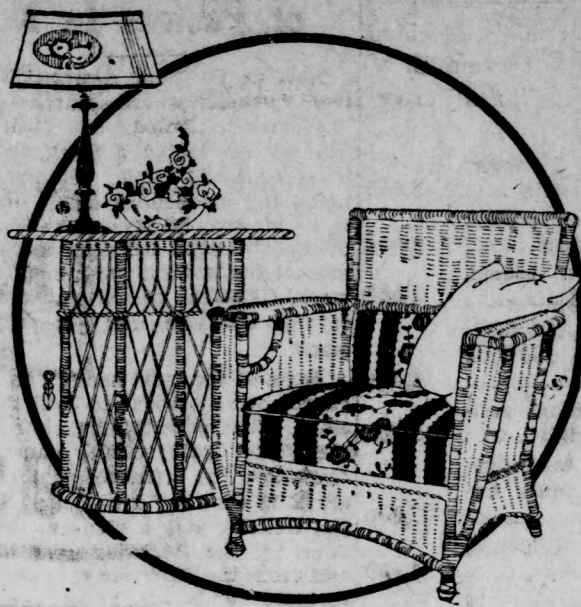

Dr. Pecanha is the opposition candidate for president and is the man "who put Brazil into the war."

Partly on the strength of that fact he is campaigning for the presidency.

"I am convinced Brazil can do no better than model herself after the United States," he told the United Press.

"The first thing I plan to adopt is my political campaign. I am modeling my tactics after those of Senor Cox. I want to put my case directly to the people. I am not the type to conduct a front porch campaign such as was successful for your distinguished president."

Pecanha's opponent for the presidency is the government candidate, Dr. Arthur Bernardes, governor of the state of Minas Geraes.

Don't Write for 18 Months, Is Suggested

MONROVIA—"The longer they stay the harder they fall."

When F. P. Gilbert of Findlay, O., came to California, he vowed he would not write his friends or relatives anything about what he thought of California for eighteen months. He wanted time to pass a real opinion on the state. He settled in Monrovia.

A few days ago his eighteen months were up, and he wrote a number of letters. Among other things, here is what he said:

"First of all, it is every bit true that California is the Golden State of the union; Monrovia is a city of flowers. It's a park in itself.

"Just sell out and come to California. I am willing to do anything that will make your trip a journey to Paradise—for that's what this state is—a Paradise of flowers and prosperity."

The Monrovia Chamber of Commerce, at the suggestion of Mr. Thomas Bynum, Monrovia's foremost humorist, is thinking of starting a "Don't write for eighteen months," movement.

Loses Teeth In River; Asks Search Be Made

YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo.—L. C. Ford, of Lima, Montana, a druggist, is asking the Yellowstone Park authorities to search the 3300 square miles of the park for a set of false teeth which he lost upon a recent visit.

Ford said he lost his teeth in the Yellowstone river while fishing. He said he got a terrific strike. It shook the reel and rod to the very roots. The fish leaped from the water, Ford said. He took one look at it, and it was so big that his jaw dropped in amazement—and so did his teeth. He said the teeth got away from him, but didn't mention what happened to the fish.

Who ever heard of a picnic without somebody sitting in the pie?

Auto Emigrants Start West to Find Homes

NEW YORK—An emigrant train, 1921 model, was scheduled to leave here today for the west.

The trip will not be made in old-fashioned "prairie schooners," but in automobiles, each equipped with a trailer to provide sleeping and cooking accommodations.

The caravan consists of 128 families, all native Americans, who have tired of city life and will take up farming in Idaho, on a tract about fifty miles southwest of Twin Falls. The trip is expected to be made by way of Albany, Buffalo, Cleveland, Chicago and Omaha.

The scheme originated with William D. Scott, a Brooklyn salesman, who formerly lived in Minneapolis. He and a friend used to take motor excursions with their families every summer. When the idea of moving to Idaho was born, a mutual friend wanted to go with them, then another and another, until it was decided to form a regular colony.

General Action Now On In Vacation Sector

TORONTO, Ont.—Invasion of Ontario by the vacation army is in full swing. From New York, Chicago, Detroit and scores of other American cities anglers are rushing into the forested uplands that are studded with gemlike lakes.

Other tourists laden with golf clubs, tennis rackets, canoes and other outing traps are turning toward the many resorts in the north-land. Many of these summer playgrounds are hidden in the heart of a wilderness almost untouched by encroaching civilization.

Bulletins from the fishing front indicate the season's catch of muskellunge, black bass, trout, salmon, pike and pickerel will far surpass big hauls of previous seasons. Heaviest travel in years to these districts is reported.

A barking dog may never bite, but death by fright lasts just as long.

Geyser In Yellowstone Ends Two-Year Rest

YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo.—Valentine geyser has ended its two-year vacation.

It now spurts twice weekly in the Norris geyser basin, according to M. P. Skinner, park naturalist, who recently investigated the district.

A party of tourists recently reported that they had found a new geyser in the Norris basin.

Skinner investigated and found that it was the old timer which had come to life again after a sleep of two years.

It's all the same to the hen whether we say "sit" or "set."

Several ships controlled by wireless have been commissioned in the British fleet, after experiments lasting nearly three years. They are about the size of large motor launches and the wheel propelling and steering machinery is capable of being controlled by wireless over a long distance.

ALICE JOYCE STAR IN PICTURE FROM NOTED COMEDY

'Her Lord and Master' Is Chief Attraction Today at Glendale Theatre

"Her Lord and Master," a photoplay made from the famous comedy drama by Martha Morton, as an Alice Joyce Vitaphone production, was the chief offering at the Glendale theatre yesterday. The same program holds over today.

The Martha Morton masterpiece in itself made a strong drawing card, and the casting of Alice Joyce, the radiant young Vitaphone star, in the stellar role, intensified the interest.
She was altogether lovely in the role of Indiana Stillwater, the ebullient and rather headstrong only daughter of an American millionaire railroad magnate, and later as the subdued and demure wife of an English viscount. The single flash of rebellion, a flaring up of the former untamed spirit of the American girl of the west, held the audience breathless as the momentous consequences seemed to become more and more inevitable.

The photoplay first presents the fascinating star in hunting costume, displaying her skill in marksmanship.
It soon develops that there is another marksman present, though invisible, for Cupid's arrows find their marks in the hearts of Indiana and the young viscount.

"For Sale," a hilarious Century comedy. Topics of the Day and the latest Pathe News round out a delightful entertainment which is made perfect by Madam Clement's selections at the organ, the crystal bead screen and the typhoon cooling system.

Russia Cross Roads Centers of Death as Famine Fight Continues

By ED L. KEEN
United Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON, Aug. 1.—Russia's famine flight continued today.
Cross roads in parts of the Volga valley were choked with thousands of rickety carts, small herds and pedestrians. The wildest confusion reigned at these points.
Great clouds of dust arose as conflicting lines tried to force their way through each other.

The striding dust descended again to the caravans, leaving the miserable travelers choking and dying. The cross roads became centers of death.
Even cattle which had staggered along, attached to their owner's carts, failed to survive heat and dust at the crossings and fell dead in the road. The carcasses were stripped of flesh and used as food.

While the caravans, heading toward the promise of harvests in the Ukraine and Russia's boundary countries continued the most miserable victims of Russia's great drought, there were millions more of sufferers, according to reports reaching here today by way of Royal, Copenhagen and Berlin.

Principal Developments
The principal developments, according to these reports:
The extension of the soviet's relief committee activities.

Threat of mutinies of different regiments who suffered ration cuts.
The establishment of a heavy guard around the Kremlin in Moscow where soviet officials stored provisions to withstand a siege if necessary. Moscow became virtually a military camp. Many regiments were taken up to the city and stationed so that every possible gathering place could be commanded.

The international battalion, including many foreign enthusiasts for the bolshevik cause, was assigned the honor of guarding the Kremlin.
Soviet authorities have abandoned their policy of mingling freely with the crowds. When necessary to leave the Kremlin now they go about in closed cars, accompanied by armored cars and squadrons of cavalry.

The panic has affected all Russia.
With thousands dying daily in the drought region, the great Volga valley, every other section was endangered by the shortage of wheat.
Flour commands almost any price.
In Simbirsk, the best of peasant cottages is offered for thirty-six pounds of flour. Generally the peasants make no effort to sell. They merely load their portable goods into a cart and join the great throngs which are shuffling across the glimmering steppes, chasing the mirage of plentiful food.

Meat is valued at thousands of roubles a pound.
The minister of food has reported that seventy-million pounds of corn have been collected in the Ukraine and will be distributed. Even that amount was expected to make little impression in Russia, however.

The officials have even gone to the extreme of taking next year's seed in requisitioning supplies from districts where crops are fairly satisfactory.

Reports to the food ministrator's office showed that rains had fallen in some dry sections but only added to the damage.

In Southern California

Glendale Man Is Arrested.
Police records show no one killed in the vicinity of Los Angeles as the result of traffic accidents. J. Victorino of Glendale, however, went to jail for running his auto into a house at 748 Cleveland street, Los Angeles.

New Postmaster in Charge.
P. P. O'Brien took office today as postmaster at Los Angeles. Maybe the Glendale branch will worry—for there is to be no changes, according to A. B. Foster, assistant postmaster. O'Brien's administration likely will be marked by the widely advertised phrase, "Ask Mr. Foster."

He's Not Even Scratched.
E. L. Remelin, pilot at Rogers' Airport in Los Angeles yesterday, lost a landing wheel, just after leaving the ground. Full of encouragement after a little spin about the skies he lit on the lone wheel left, skidded around several times and came out of it without a scratch.

Search for Mystery Craft
The navy shore patrol and immigration officials from San Pedro are today scouring the sea off the entrance of Newport harbor for a mysterious craft, said to be operated by Orientals, which is alleged to have been engaged in smuggling Japanese into the United States from Mexico.

The mystery craft was reported to have made several trips yesterday.
An all-night search by government cutters and launches proved fruitless it was reported early today.
Lieut. L. F. Small, U. S. N., and Immigration Inspector C. G. Gately are directing the search.

Youth Held Result of Fire Earl Stover, twenty-two, is being held for investigation in the county jail in Los Angeles today, following a $25,000 fire which destroyed the Casa del Mar hotel, near Venice, yesterday. Officials suspect the fire was of incendiary origin. Stover was a former chauffeur for Mrs. H.
Boland of Venice, owner of the hotel.
The hotel and surrounding bungalows are said to have been recently insured for $100,000.

"Sea" War Is Threatened
A war threatens along Santa Monica's coast line if the Japanese and Russian fishing fleets fail to keep out of the three-mile limit. It is said that swimmers are endangered by the practice of boats following the fish close to shore.

Millionaire Is Accused
William F. Tebbetts, former collector of customs at Atlanta, is under arrest in Los Angeles today for alleged illegal stock manipulations.
Tebbetts' bond has been set at $10,- 000. The accused man is said to be a millionaire.

Wife No. 3 Sues Him
James Young, motion picture director and former husband of Clara Kimball Young, is defendant in a divorce action here today, filed by his third wife, Clara Whipple Young.
Mrs. Young No. 3 alleges mental cruelty in her complaint. Young's first wife was Rita Johnson, authoress. Clara Kimball, the picture star, was second. His present wife, Clara Whipple Young, is a scenario writer.

Dam Fight—In Newspapers Riverside and Los Angeles are having a fight over who is to get the Boulder Canyon dam power.
It is now charged that the prime mover in the former's Chamber of Commerce publicity campaign to stop the southern metropolis from sharing in the benefits of this great project is a Riverside capitalist who put over a profitable Southern Sierra Power deal recently.

Adopting School Budgets School budgets throughout the southland are being adopted. With new forms and greater provisions for expenditures the school authorities have found it some task to get figures in shape by the end of July.

Costumes Are—Er—Cool
Pajama parties in the Arroyo Seco feature the $50,000 heart balm suit of Lucille McCarthy. Men were only pajamas and the girls their kimonos as they danced to the inspiration of gin fizzes and other "famous brew." The trial in question is closed to the public.

Put Million Into Soap
Incorporation of the Andrew Jergens Soap Company of California, with a capital stock of $500,000, as told in The Glendale Evening News Tuesday, is followed by the announcement that $1,000,000 is to be invested in the Carbasmo plant there. Manufacture of their product on this coast will save the company a large sum, it is said. Within thirty days 150 workmen will be employed.

Declares Against Blue Laws
Declaring against blue laws for Los Angeles, Mayor George E. Cryer says: "One of the reasons we cannot have them here is because there are thousands of people who observe Saturday as their Sabbath. The Sunday closing law would force these people to observe two days each week. Also I believe there are enough laws in that direction right now, and that the motion picture people are sufficiently law-abiding."

IT WAS SUGGESTIVE
"So she refused you?"
"That's the impression I received."
"Didn't she actually say no?"
"No, she didn't. All she said was 'Ha-ha-ha!'"

Ideas of Hospitality Prove Most Peculiar

SACRAMENTO—"No, judge, he didn't hold me up; he knocked me down."

This was the declaration of Jim Sharp, prospector, to Police Judge Anderson, when he was brought up for trial on a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Sharp said he met a very congenial man while he was in town on a visit. The man invited him up to his hotel room for a few drinks. Sharp said that he went, and that upon getting in the room the man gave him an "awful clout" on the jaw, knocking him down. He then took $150 away from him.

Sharp said that the man left, and that as soon as he had loosened the cords with which his "friend" had bound him, he went to his room, strapped on his gun, and went back to look for his assailant with the idea of getting his money back at the point of a gun.

He didn't find the man. Instead the police noticed the bulge on his hip, and arrested him for carrying a concealed weapon. Judge Anderson dismissed the charge against him.

New Rates Are Fixed Upon State's Products

SAN FRANCISCO—The new rates on a number of California products for shipment to Gulf of Mexico ports for trans-shipment in the export trade, recently announced by the Santa Fe railroad, were made effective in record time.

Instead of waiting until August 25, allowing the usual necessary time before making the rates effective, the Santa Fe obtained special permission from the Interstate Commerce commission at Washington to make the rates effective on July 28.

The new rates are:
Dried fruit, in boxes . . . $.95
Dried fruit, in sacks . . . $1.15
Canned goods 80
Beans 90
Barley 50
Rice 80
The rates apply to products shipped for export only.

Biological Discovery; Snake Swallows Self!

STOCKTON—"The snake that swallowed itself has been discovered in the biological laboratory of the local high school.

The reptile is a bull snake. It didn't entirely swallow itself, but it came so close to it that only a last minute rescue prevented one of the marvels of the age from being consummated.

The other day a curious student wagged the tail of the snake in front of its eyes. The snake, evidently thinking its rear extremity a choice morsel of food, grabbed its tail, and hung on. It took a few more bites, and the tail began to disappear, while the snake resembled a hoop in form.

Now the teeth of a bull snake point inwardly. Thus nothing it attempts to swallow can extricate itself.

Professor H. J. Snook took a startled look, and then caught the remaining posterior of the snake and gave a pull.

Nothing happened. Finally the professor obtained a pair of pincers, pried the snake's jaws open, and pulled itself out of itself, thus preventing it from completely disappearing within itself.

Too Proud to Fight So They Give Battle

NELSON, B. C.—Record another battle for peace.

Doukhobors, whose peculiar religious quirk is the belief in peace, are not too proud to fight. And proved it by giving battle to census takers and mounted police that tried to record their histories in the census documents of the state.

Periodically the Doukhobors, who are ordinarily industrious and devout, depart from the conventions of civilization, and doff their garments. Clad in ferocious expressions, members of both sexes of the sect, met the census enumerator and police. A sharp combat ensued, in which police were worsted, and it was only after heavy reinforcements had arrived that the officials succeeded in bringing the apostles of universal peace to submission.

Price of Lumber Has Decreased 65 Percent

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore.—The price of lumber has decreased approximately 65 per cent in the past year, according to R. U. Vinneage, president of the West Coast Lumberman's association.

The cost of operating the mills, on the other hand, has decreased but 35 per cent, he declared.

The bad condition of the lumber industry at present, he claims, is due to the fact that despite the decreased prices there has been no marked increase in lumber sales. The mills can only operate at a profit if they are able to handle a large output.

Vinneage declared that before a real revival of the lumber industry comes a lower wage scale in the building trades must be brought about, and lower freight rates to eastern markets must be obtained.

Communion Service Is Given for Lutherans

Communion service was held yesterday at the Glendale Mission of the Lutheran church. Fourteen new members were received into the congregation which makes an increase of forty-four since Dr. H. C. Funk took charge of the church.

"Who Are Worthy?" was the subject of Dr. Funk's dissertation and he drew practical analogies in explaining those who are deserving of salvation. One of the largest audiences in the history of the church was present to greet their pastor Sunday morning.

Large signs in black and white bearing the inscription, "Private cemetery across the bridge for rockless drivers" and decorated with skull and crossbones have been erected on both sides of the Otterkill bridge on the state road between Goshen and Chester, New York. Many accidents have occurred on the bridge in the past and they were put up as a warning to careless motorists.

DRAMATIC FEATURE IS PRESENTED AT PALACE GRAND

South Seas Liberally Shown In
'Woman God Changed,' Featuring Seena Owen

To fancy one's self in the tropics, or on the coral strand of a beautiful island in the South Seas, one should see "The Woman God Changed," a new Cosmopolitan production for Paramount, which was shown with great success at the Palace Grand theatre yesterday. This photoplay, independent of its dramatic story, is photographically a gem and well worth going miles to see. The story, written by Donn Byrne, deals dramatically with the fortunes of a dancing girl, who, after slaying her common law husband for discarding her for another, escapes to Tahiti, whither she is traced by a detective. Then follows a thrilling denouement which fairly grips the spectator. Seena Owen and E. K. Lincoln head an unusually fine cast of players.

"Torchy Mixes In," featuring Johnny Hives, is a "different comedy" that makes one wonder how little humor the old world enjoyed until motion pictures were developed. The music by the orchestra is another enjoyable feature of this T. D. & L. playhouse.

Tomorrow George Walsh in "Dynamite Allen" and Patty Arbuckle in "The Cook" provide a bill of thrills and screams.

Dr. F. L. Riley Is Speaker on Topic 'Where Is Heaven?'

Editor The Evening News: As announced, Dr. F. L. Riley delivered his lecture in Masonic Temple Sunday morning on the subject, "Where Is Heaven?"

The doctor went on to show that owing to the age-long erroneous literal interpretation of the Bible, heaven and hell always has been and still is taught by some sects as a location—a place. The thought is implanted in the minds of the children that hell is below somewhere, a horrible location, a place of everlasting torment, in conjunction with a long-tailed devil, with his pitchfork anticipating delight in torturing those who had disobeyed a "fearful God." On the other hand "mansions above, in a city paved with gold and studded with glittering jewels, a harp and an indefinite period of ease and happiness" await those who accept the orthodox misinterpretations.

Quoting many passages of scripture applicable to the subject; applying the Sanscrit, Hebrew, and Greek derivations in their logical order, and laying particular emphasis upon the words of the master found in Matthew 13-34, where it is stated that "without a parable spake He not unto them" the lecturer beautifully and irrefutably showed that hell, heaven, the kingdom of God, are not locations, concrete conditions; not extraneous or exotic conditions, but esoteric, spiritual.

He explained how two persons in the audience, possibly rubbing elbows, one might be in hell and the other in heaven; a person might be in hell today and in heaven tomorrow, or vice-versa.

Studies for Twenty Years
The doctor stated that after having spent more than twenty years in studying the religions of the world in connection with kindred sciences; the perusal of over sixty bibles in conjunction with our own Bible, also scores of books similar to those which compose our Bible, and which were discarded in the compiling of our Bible, which would make two volumes as large as Webster's dictionary; that much had been left out of our Bible which is in contradistinction with the generally accepted teaching of the day. But also emphasized the fact that "the silver thread of truth permeates all religions and all Bibles."

Dr. Riley is not alone a lecturer of international renown, an ex-M. D., a psychologist, metaphysician and author, but a profound scholar in the broadest sense of the term. He is weekly delivering lectures to large audiences in Hollywood, Los Angeles, and other large cities. Those who still retain sufficient initiative to do their own thinking should not fail to hear him each Sunday morning. Free, all are welcome.

J. F. TATLOW.

Prices now are between 45 and 50 per cent above those of 1913, with the exception of building materials. The following table shows the decline in food prices during the year in some of the nation's biggest and most important cities:

Thirty-nine per cent—Butte, Portland, Ore.
Thirty-seven per cent—Salt Lake City and Seattle.
Thirty-one per cent—San Francisco.
Thirty per cent—Los Angeles.

NEW YORK—Here's how New York youngsters were making 2,500 per cent profit on investments of 1 cent. They placed pennies on street car tracks and dropped the flattened coins into stamp vending machines, getting a quarter's worth each time. The scheme was broken up when a policeman arrested four, ranging in age from ten to twelve.

Billion In Profits for Those Who Have Savings Bank Account

By RALPH F. COUCH
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Approximately $1,000,000,000 in profits has piled up in the last twelve months for possessors of deposits in savings banks, owners of government thrift and war stamps and of other securities easily convertible into cash.

This profit now is waiting collection by its thousands of owners in addition to more than $120,000,000 worth of interest at 4 per cent. It is as yet, mainly a paper profit, but is sure and certain and results from the general decrease of approximately 30 per cent in the value of nearly all commodities during the past year.

Depositors in savings banks now have between two and three billion dollars to their credit, according to estimates based on reports to the office of the comptroller of the currency. Those who wish to draw their cash and take their profit can now buy many stocks, bonds, industrial securities and other commodities and securities at far less than a year ago.

Business Growing Better
Prices generally now have practically reached a stabilized level, most government officials believe, unless the nation-wide economic depression is to cut still deeper than it has. But with business on the road to a boom, prices are likely to advance.

In fifty-one big cities the general level of food prices has declined more than 30 per cent in the year, the reports to the labor department show. Clothing, farm products and other commodities have declined in proportion. The decline has been approximately three per cent a month. But in June the drop was less than one per cent. This indicates, officials say, the bottom level of the price curve probably has been reached.

Prices now are between 45 and 50 per cent above those of 1913, with the exception of building materials. The following table shows the decline in food prices during the year in some of the nation's biggest and most important cities:

Thirty-nine per cent—Butte, Portland, Ore.

Counter Proposals to England Being Drafted

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent
DUBLIN, Aug. 1.—Sinn Fein has begun drafting a rejection of the principal terms in the British peace proposal. The Irish will make counter proposals, principally regarding the degree of self-government and the relations to be maintained between Ulster and the southern counties.

The reply probably will not be sent to London before the middle of next week. It is being drafted from a "trading" viewpoint. That is, the principal terms in their present nebulous state are turned down, with the idea that the counter proposals will lead to further parleys. If the government's offer is elastic, Lord George is expected to answer by inviting De Valera to London for more conversations. This invitation, it can be stated authoritatively, would be accepted. If the government's proposition is a flat "take or leave it" offer the peace negotiations seem doomed.

In point of number of volumes the largest library in the world is the Bibliotheque Nationale, in Paris.

LONDON—Painting a picture of the world's desperate economic situation, Leonid Krassin, chief of the Russian trade delegation to England, pleaded cessation of open and underhand warfare with Russia, as a means of hastening world economic rehabilitation.

Krassin, who is recognized in England as a veteran business administrator, and who is Soviet Russia's chief diplomatic representative in Western Europe, suggested creation of an international organization controlling and apportioning enormous stocks of the industrial countries. Such an organization, he informed the United Press, in an exclusive interview, would not only pay a profit on capital invested, but also would ameliorate world-wide economic distress.

"If we cast a general glance at the economic position of the whole world today," Krassin declared, "we shall discover an absolutely grotesque fact."

"On the other hand, hundreds of millions of persons in Central Europe and in Russia are suffering from lack of food, boots and clothing; extreme disorganization of transport, destruction of machinery and fittings in factories and workshops, owing to absence of repairs during the war, extreme shortage and even complete lack of agricultural implements, of fertilizers and farming requisites."

Find No Purchaser
"At the same time the stores of all the industrial firms of Western Europe are full of manufactured goods which can find no purchaser."

Here, Krassin suggested his idea of an international consortium. "The practical path towards the elimination of this crying and ridiculous contradiction can be found only in the formation of a kind of international organization or consortium which shall receive control of all the enormous stocks of the industrial countries and shall apportion them amongst the countries whose economic structure has been exhausted and destroyed—and first of all Russia."

"And in a very few years this measure, which does not demand in reality any very large expense, since it consists only in a rational and productive utilization of goods and instruments of production which have been lying idle for three years now, will return not only the capital expended, but also a profit in the form of raw materials and food-stuffs."
